

Preparing Your Way

When the wind is coming from the right direction, every few minutes I see a plane on final approach to Dulles Airport through my office window at church. Many of those planes are the big international flights, with hundreds of people on board.

Sometimes I think to myself, “who is on that plane and what brings them here?”

For many of them, it’s just a simple trip, maybe even routine. But beyond clicking “reserve” on a travel website and after showing up at the airport, there is a vast collection of people that are involved in their journey – pilots, flight attendants, gate agents, ground crews, baggage handlers, security, customs officers, air traffic controllers, just to name a few.

The same is true for us as we follow Jesus. In some ways being a disciple is something we choose to do, and must choose to do as individuals. Someone else can’t follow Jesus for us. At the same time, each of us can only follow Jesus because we have help along the way, because others have “prepared the way” for us. It is interesting for me that this is even true of Jesus himself. Luke names John the Baptist as the one who “prepared the way” for Jesus’ ministry (Luke 3:4), and we could add to that generations of the Old Testament prophets as well, and even his disciples, who often handled logistics for Jesus (Luke 22:7-13).

So, who has prepared the way, who has supported you in your life of discipleship? I know that my way was prepared by godly parents and good churches when I was young, and as I have grown, mature Christian friends. My guess is that there have been “way preparers” in your life as well.

Advent is a good time to think of them, to give thanks for them. We don’t journey alone in our faith, anymore than we fly alone from Dulles Airport. God-sent people prepare our way.

God bless,

Holy Advent: Checking our Expectations

I happened upon a Fleming Rutledge article about Advent that inspired my own thoughts about the season upon us. As a priest who has written a book on Advent, I wondered what she had to share. She reminded me about how countercultural Advent really is, even more than other church seasons like Lent or Easter. Of all the seasons that bring out the most decorations, traditions, foodies and parties, the month leading up to Christmas is it!

Naturally, folks have been fussing for awhile about how much Christmas creeps in and steals the joy and uniqueness of Thanksgiving. But then, we Anglicans take a pause before we jump in with all the trappings of a holiday season. Don't get me wrong, I am not bashing anyone's decorations or holiday music stations. Being new to Anglicanism myself, Advent observance still feels new and awkward and well, countercultural as Rutledge says. A holy Advent observance is something that I have added to bit by bit.

While all around us the songs and the decorations might tempt us to jump into the joy, tarrying for a while and holding back even just a little is not a bad idea. Certainly, I would hope that at the very least, we would spend time in Scripture and let its truth sink in. It is not easy reading as we delve into Daniel, Zephaniah, Zechariah and Malachi at this time of year. It is hard to live with the darkness when all around us folks are dressing up as Santa and yelling, "Ho, ho, ho. Let's all be jolly."

Advent traditions "remind me day to day during the season that we have no right to expect anything from God. We live in darkness and in the shadow of death and that is our rightful lot since the fall of Adam." Sure, we have Lent to contemplate these similar themes but the Lenten season is fundamentally different. "The culture observes Christmas as though it were deserved, expected, domesticated, even routine and manageable." But Advent is here to remind us it isn't.

Perhaps, the scaling back of a thing that we think we deserve or expect of this holiday season is just what we need to do to see anew the wonder of the birth narrative. God in flesh, baby flesh, is really quite miraculous, quite unexpected. We would be missing deep truths if we simply skim the surface as we go about our shopping and cookie-baking ways. Let me try this analogy. We might have had a person in our lives who was generous to us, maybe even year after year. The danger of their repeated generosity is that we would come to think we deserve their generosity, as we come to expect it. When that happens, their giving is no longer a gift to us. You could see how we might be tempted to see the gift of a savior in the stable by a God who loves us so much would tempt us to slip into bad patterns. So I would hope that, however you might choose to observe Advent, you would find ways to keep it a holy Advent, and one that prepares your heart to receive his gift.

Christmas Services At Epiphany

This year, we will be celebrating the Christmas Season at Epiphany beginning on Sunday, Dec. 23 with Lessons and Carols, and then continuing with two services on Christmas Eve.

Lessons and Carols is a musical service at 10:15am on Sunday, December 23. This traditional service combines readings from scripture with well known Christmas carols that we sing together as a congregation. This year, Lessons and Carols will include a short sermon focused on the meaning of Christmas. While Communion is not part of the Lessons and Carols service, there will be an 8am Holy Eucharist on Dec. 23.

Christmas Eve Worship at Epiphany this year will be at 5 and 11 pm. Our 5pm service includes our children's Christmas drama. The 11pm service is a traditional candlelight service with the adult choir and chime choir.

December 23	10:15 AM:	Lessons & Carols
December 24	5 PM	Family Worship Service with children's Christmas drama
December 24	11 PM	Traditional Candlelight Service

This Year's Epiphany Gift

One of Epiphany's traditions is a year-end gift for a specific mission or outreach project, either locally, or through our missionary partners. We give this gift from a portion of our Christmas Eve offering. Last year, we helped Coates Elementary School refurbish their teacher training room. This year, the Missions Committee found two projects equally compelling.

The first is helping to provide a car for Ezra, a disciple of Pastor Ahmet in Turkey. You may remember Pastor Ahmet from his time with us at Epiphany last summer. Ezra needs a car not only for his growing family, but also to further his ministry in Turkey. In the past few years, Ezra helped tend to Syrian refugees who were traumatized by the brutal civil war. He now has been assigned to minister to a church in an overwhelmingly Muslim area in Turkey that receives an average of 1500-2000 visitors per month. Ezra's tasks include sharing the faith with those visitors and believers, meeting with inquirers in the surrounding districts and provinces, and journeying to Kurdish areas as he works on a translation of the New Testament in their mother tongue.

We also want to help get SAT-7's Social Media Viewer Engagement Initiative off the ground. With 1.9 million Facebook followers and over 2 million SAT-7 Arabic YouTube downloads a month, SAT-7 has designed and implemented social media resources to help people with parenting and life questions. Helping people become better parents is a worthy goal in itself, but more than that, it enables SAT-7 to lead people into a discussion about faith and ultimately into a relationship with God.

During our evening services on Christmas Eve (5 and 11pm), the first $4,000 of our offering as a congregation will be designated to fund these projects ($2,000 for each). If for any reason you want to make sure your gift on Christmas Eve goes to Epiphany's operating budget, please just indicate that in the memo line of your check.

FY2018 Financial Report

FINANCIAL REPORT

FISCAL YEAR 2018
(JULY 1, 2017 – JUNE 30, 2018)

Summary

FY2018 was a year of incredible blessings for Church of the Epiphany. In addition to our normal giving we saw our congregation dig deeply and give over $800,000 towards our move to 3863 Centerview Drive.

Due to the move and the associated costs our overall expenses were greater than our general fund income; necessitating using unrestricted reserve funds of about $70,000. We anticipate that the same will not be true for FY2019 and that over the year we can start to build up our reserves to an acceptable level. In all, we are grateful to God for His grace to Epiphany and to our congregation for their faithful generosity.

Due to the fact we were having a building campaign we did not have the annual stewardship campaign. For FY2018 we based the numbers on the FY2017 operating budget of $860,000. Therefore, the Vestry approved a budget of $860,000.

FY2018 Financial Report

For the fiscal year ended June 30, 2018, our operating expenses exceeded budget and our pledge and plate giving was impacted by our Building Campaign, resulting in a decrease in unrestricted net assets of $80,237.

EXPLANATIONS

These are the reasons for variance of expenditures from fiscal year 2018 for the ministries with more than a 10% variance.

CONGREGATIONAL CARE

The Women’s Ministry budget included childcare expenses, which were not required in 2018. The Men’s Ministry was budgeted for a retreat, which they did not have.

VESTRY

Did not spend as much as was budgeted for vestry.

FINANCE & LEGAL

This was more than expected due to the fees from the consultants on the Dulles Technology parking and for submitting a solution to the county for allowing us to apply for a permanent parking permit.

Photographer this Sunday

This Sunday, December 9, we will have a friend of our church and professional photographer Abby Springmann with us to take new pictures for our website and other promotional materials. Abby's work will be helpful to us for introducing people to our congregation and giving visitors to our website a sense of who we are and what to expect.

You can help Epiphany by being at church this Sunday so that we have a full congregation for the photos. If for any reason you or your family shouldn't be in our final set of photos please let Fr. Peter know so that Epiphany can honor your wishes.

Welcome to New Vestry Members

During Epiphany's annual congregational meeting on Nov. 9, five candidates were elected to the vestry. New vestry members, who will begin their terms on Jan. 1, are (L-R) Kelly Derrick, Carole Menzel, Margaret Stromberg, Pat Meyer, and Lisa Baehr.

Christmas Flowers

Please consider donating flowers in honor of a loved one to help decorate the Church for Christmas. There is a sign-up sheet in the gathering place. Deadline for ordering is December 16th. Complete the form and leave it, along with your check, in the envelope provided.

Holiday Baskets - Help Our Neighbors

Thank you to all of those who contributed to the Thanksgiving basket effort. We had plenty of grocery gift cards, money to spend on fresh produce, and willing folks to deliver the assembled baskets. A special thanks to Zan Dial who handled the shopping for the fresh items as well as the assembly of the baskets. I hope some of you were able to see the bounty laid out in the multipurpose room (the room with the garage door) before delivery. Wow!

The giving was so generous that we wound up with many extra grocery gift cards! We believe we may have enough to both give to families for their main course AND do the grocery shopping to fill the baskets. What we would like to request instead is that you consider participating by either baking/providing Christmas goodies to include in the baskets, or signing up to deliver baskets. We will be serving the same 10 families, and delivery is targeted for December 23, the Sunday before Christmas. There will be a signup sheet in the Fellowship Area. Questions? ## Missions Update: Fran Boyle

We received a recent report from Fran Boyle, who works with orphans and displaced youth from the Sudan. Here are excerpts:

Our children at the orphanage in Akuak Rak are finishing up the school year. They will be on break the month of December and the new term begins in January. I am planning to visit in January to witness and speak at our fourth 8th grade graduation. Our faith is once again being stretched, as we trust the Lord for the funding to continue to fund the school and teachers that train and care for 320 children.

We want each child that graduates eighth grade to be able to go on to high school. I didn't know how we would be able to care for the 62 children we started with ten years ago. The Lord did not let us down then and we are trusting that he will not now. We are grateful for the partnership with Answering the Call who has worked to help the school compound become more self-sufficient by maintaining a herd of cattle, raising chickens and planting gardens, all things that were once a normal form of life in the area, before the war which changed everything. Our clinic is the only health facility in the region. What God has done in helping us to restore life to this area is remarkable.

As we shared with you in the last newsletter, Santino Atak, our pastor that is headmaster of the school, was going blind. We were able to send him to Kenya for eye surgery which saved his eyesight. Atak was so full of joy when the bandages were taken off and he was able to see. Atak, and the miraculous healing of his eyes was celebrated in formal celebrations when he returned home. Government officials from the area attended the church ceremony.

Publishing Information

The Epiphany STAR is generally published monthly and contains articles and information about what God has and is doing in us and through us as the Epiphany Family. It is intended to encourage each of us in our ministry and discipleship by relating how God is working in the midst of us.

The Epiphany Candle is published weekly by email, highlighting what is coming in the days ahead at Epiphany and other information that the staff and vestry feel is important to emphasize.
